

Get Involved: Discussion Fora

The goal of these closed discussion fora is to enable frank conversations among stakeholders from the fields of law, health, social care, and people with disabilities concerning the barriers and opportunities for securing reproductive justice.

The numbers attending these fora will be limited and participants in the fora will be drawn from four main domains – disabled people, and researchers or practitioners from the domains of law, healthcare and social care.

We will be having four discussion fora in Dublin as follows:

	Topic	Date
1	Pregnancy and Childbirth	20 th September 2019
2	Abortion	May 2020
3	Parenting	September 2020
4	Fertility & contraception	May 2021

Name: _____

I am interesting in attending _____
(please state topic(s)) discussion forum/a.

Please, briefly outline why you have a particular interest in participating at the discussion forum(s) you have selected above: (e.g. disabled person, researcher or practitioner from the domain of law, healthcare and social care)

Contact details: _____

Please leave this form at the registration desk, or send by email to:
realproductivejustice@nuigalway.ie

Or post to: Re(al) Productive Justice Project, Centre for Disability Law and Policy, Institute for Lifecourse and Society, National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland.